Dear Bob:

I have just returned to Washington after a very enjoyable trip to Europe. I find on my desk your letter of September 6th together with the interesting enclosure.

There are many who share the concern expressed in your letter and I have brought the information in it and in your enclosure to the attention of the appropriate people. This is a case we have been closely following for many weeks.

Many thanks for forwarding this material to my attention. With best wishes.

Faithfully,

Allen W. Dulles

Dear Dr. Johnson:

In Mr. Dulles' absence on a trip to Europe I am writing to thank you for your letter of September 6 and its interesting enclosure.

I will bring your letter to Mr. Dulles' attention as soon as he returns about September 20 and I am sure you will hear from him shortly thereafter. In the meantime I am making available a copy of your letter and enclosure to some of our specialists here for further consideration.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
